DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-9, drawn to a method for identifying compounds that modulate binding of CK β 8-1 to FPRL-1 comprising providing cells expressing FPRL-1 receptor and measuring signal indicative of receptor activation.

Group II, claim(s) 10-21, and 25-30, drawn to a method for identifying compounds that modulate the binding of CK β 8-1 to FPRL-1 receptor comprising measuring amount of complex formed between FPRL-1 receptor and CK β 8-1.

Group III, claim(s) 22-24, drawn to a method of screening for a FPRL-1 receptor agonist or antagonist comprising comparing activity of cell expressing FPRL-1 receptor to that of cell that does not express FPRL-1 receptor.

Group IV, claim(s) 31 and 32, drawn to a method of identifying a compound that binds FPRL-1 receptor by measuring displacement of CK β 8-1.

Group V, claim(s) 33, drawn to method of determining if a test compound is an agonist, antagonist or inverse agonist of CK β 8-1 comprising incubating a cell expressing FPRL-1 and measuring a signal indicative of receptor activation.

The inventions listed as Groups I-V do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Group I recites the special technical feature of providing cells expressing FPRL-1 receptor, contacting cells with CK β 8-1 in the presence or absence of a test compound, and measuring signal indicative of receptor activation, which is not required by the methods of the Groups II-V.

Group II recites the special technical feature of measuring the amount of CK β 8-1 bound to FPRL-1 receptor, which is not required by the methods of Groups I and III-V.

Group III recites the special technical feature of comparing activity of cell expressing FPRL-1 receptor to the activity of cell that does not express FPRL-1 receptor, which is not required by the methods of Groups I, II, IV or V.

Group IV recites the special technical feature of measuring displacement of bound CK β 8-1, which is not required by the methods of Groups I-III or V.

Group V recites the special technical feature of incubating cell expressing FPRL-1 with test compound and measuring a signal indicative of receptor activation.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144.

If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected invention.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Shulamith H. Shafer, Ph.D. whose telephone number is 571-272-3332. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday through Friday, 8 AM to 5 PM.
